MSA University
Faculty of Arts & Design
Fall 2025 – Semester 88

COURSEWORK PORTFOLIO

Children Press in Egypt

MCOM206a

Unit Staff:

Dr. Shahira Khalil

T.A. Mariam Elrashid

T.A. Mariam Elmasry

Presented by: Ahmed Abobakr Mohamed

MSA University
Faculty of Arts & Design
Fall 2025 – Semester 88

Assignment 1

.

MSA University
Faculty of Arts & Design
Fall 2025 – Semester 88

Story Analysis: Adventure on the Balcony

Summary:

The comic Adventure on the Balcony (مغامرة في البلكونة) is based on the adventures of a pack of naughty and inquisitive children, who become the participants of a chain of funny and bizarre events after noticing something suspicious on a balcony. Their inquisitiveness sends them on a madcap adventure of misunderstandings, slapstick humor and unexpected developments. In their attempts to work out the answer to a mystery they perceive to have, their antics cause their neighbors to confuse them, get into run-ins with adults, and even an accidental meeting with a film crew. Their imaginative overstatement makes the commonplace extraordinary by the end of it, which has a light moral lesson to them (and the readers) of being curious and overreacting.

Cons

1. The novel is super humorous and high-energy and it keeps the readers entertained throughout their reading.

2. It employs bright pictures and animated characters which contribute to the humorous impact.

3. The conversation reflects street vernaculars of Egypt and, thus, the narrative is familiar and culturally real.

4. The twisty-turn series of events keeps the action going and demonstrates how even minor things may result in tremendous misunderstandings.

Conclusion

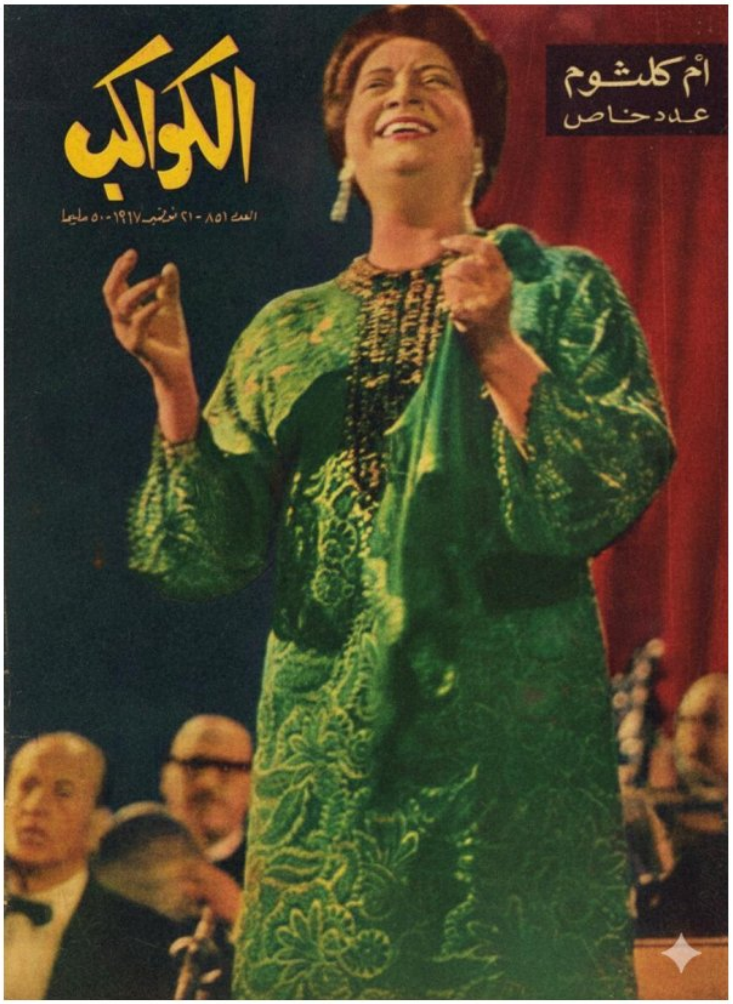

All in all, Adventure on the Balcony (مغامرة في البلكونة) is an active and humorous short story that is an excellent basis to describe the imagination of childhood and the desire to play mischief. It manages to bring laugh and excitement despite its simplicity and over-the-top humour. The cartoonish style used in the story, the rapid rhythm, and the visual puns make it a pleasant reading experience among the younger audience and lovers of the old Egyptian comics.

MSA University
Faculty of Arts & Design
Fall 2025 – Semester 88

Assignment 2

MSA University
Faculty of Arts & Design
Fall 2025 – Semester 88

MSA University
Faculty of Arts & Design
Fall 2025 – Semester 88

Quiz

MSA University
Faculty of Arts & Design
Fall 2025 – Semester 88

Assignment 3

MSA University
Faculty of Arts & Design
Fall 2025 – Semester 88

Miguel Rivera

Why Miguel Rivera Is My Favorite Character:

Miguel Rivera is my favorite character because he represents the struggle between following one's dreams and respecting family traditions. In Coco, Miguel is born into a family that strongly rejects music due to past pain and misunderstandings. Despite this, Miguel feels a deep emotional connection to music, showing that passion is often something natural and impossible to ignore.

What makes Miguel special is his courage. Even though he is young, he dares to question the rules placed upon him and chooses to search for his true identity. His journey to the Land of the Dead is not just a physical adventure, but a symbolic journey of self-discovery. Through this journey, Miguel learns that understanding the past is essential to building the future.

Miguel also represents cultural identity. The film highlights Mexican traditions such as Día de los Muertos, family values, and remembrance. Miguel's character helps the audience understand how culture, memory, and family history shape who we are. Miguel's character helps the audience understand how culture, memory, and family history shape who we are.

Instead of rejecting his family, Miguel finds a balance between honoring his heritage and pursuing his passion.

From a design and storytelling perspective, Miguel is visually and emotionally well-developed. His expressive facial animations, warm color palette, and connection to music make him relatable and memorable. His character growth throughout the film shows maturity, responsibility, and emotional intelligence.

In conclusion, I chose Miguel Rivera because he inspires me to believe that dreams and family do not have to be enemies. His story teaches that true success comes from honesty, courage, and understanding where we come from.